

What's Cookin' at Upper Sandusky Community Library

The Upper Sandusky Community library is committed to providing programs that will interest and benefit our community.

What's Cookin' Cookbook Discussion Group meets once each month. It is open to the public and newcomers are always welcome.

Join us for great discussion with others who love to cook (or eat!) and share your love of cooking with others.

Contact the library for more information about What's Cookin'. We'll be happy to give you more information and show you our extensive collection of cookbooks available to our patrons.

What's Cookin' Cookbook Discussion Group

What's Cookin' has been meeting since 2013 on a monthly basis to discuss food and cookbooks and share in a themed potluck meal.

Cheryl Lyon is the coordinator of the group and leads the meetings. Her goal is to provide interesting speakers and demonstrations of cooking methods, and to share relevant information and fun facts about cooking.

Do you enjoy cooking? Are you looking for new ideas, recipes, and opportunities to learn more about food and cooking? Join Cheryl and the group as they continue their adventures in cooking.

For more information you can contact Cheryl at clyon@seolibraries.org or call the library at 419-294-1345. We'll be happy to give you more information about this fun, interactive library program.
